ABOUT THE FSG

This Financial Services Guide (FSG) explains Bluewell Pty Ltd's (Bluewell):

- products and services;
- remuneration; and
- other important information.

Please take the time to carefully read this FSG and keep it safely with your policy documents.

This FSG is an important document that we are obliged to give to retail clients under the requirements of our Australian Financial Services Licence (AFSL).

This FSG is designed to provide you with an understanding of Bluewell, our services offering, and to inform you of important matters relating to our relationships with third parties prior to you deciding whether to use our financial advice. This FSG is provided to you by your advisor, under authority from Bluewell.

All our brokers are financial services industry experienced and work out of our offices in South-East Queensland. Our advisers are competent and compliant with relevant industry education, both through formal and ongoing education and training.

WHO DO WE ACT FOR

We usually act on your behalf and in your interests in all matters. Sometimes, it may be more appropriate for us to access insurance or manage claims where we act as an agent of the insurer. If and when this situation arises we will explain and highlight this to you.

LACK OF INDEPENDENCE

We are not independent, impartial or unbiased in relation to the provision of personal advice and the impact of this on you, as we may receive commissions from the underwriters that we place your insurance with. Bluewell may receive remuneration or other non-monetary benefits from insurers or other third parties which restricts us from referring to ourselves as independent, impartial or unbiased as it may reasonably be expected to influence the personal advice provided to you and may cause a conflict of interest.

OUR SERVICES AND PRODUCTS

We offer a range of services to assist you to protect your assets and guard against unexpected liabilities including reviewing and advising on your insurance needs, identifying risk factors to avoid claims and seeking competitive premium quotations.

All Bluewell Authorised Representatives (Advisors) are authorised to provide personal advice and transact on your behalf (dealing) in relation to the following broad range of insurances including but not limited to:

- Home Building and Contents, Private and Commercial Motor, Farm, Business Packages, Construction, Liability, Industrial and Professional covers.

We will only recommend an insurance product to you after considering its suitability for your individual needs, objectives and financial situation. The products we recommend are selected from our approved list of products (Approved Product List or APL) that have been researched by external experts. In addition, your Broker can offer you an on-going monitoring and review service for your insurance program.

HOW YOU CAN INSTRUCT US

You can give instructions to us to provide products and services by using the contact details set out in this FSG.

RETAIL CLIENTS

Under the Corporations Act 2001 (The Act) Retail Clients are provided with additional protection from other clients. The Act defines Retail Clients as: Individuals or a manufacturing business employing less than 100 people or any other business employing less than 20 people and that are purchasing the following types of insurance covers: Motor vehicle, home building, contents, personal and domestic, sickness/accident/travel, consumer credit and other classes as prescribed by regulations.

Some of the information in this FSG only applies to Retail Clients and it is important that you understand if you are covered by the additional protection provided.

RETAIL CLIENT ISSUES

Typically, we provide General and Personal Advice to our Retail Clients. General Advice does not take into account your particular needs and requirements and you should consider the appropriateness of this advice to your circumstances prior to acting upon it. We will provide you with a General Advice Warning in such cases.

If we give you personal advice about a Retail Product, which takes into account your individual objectives, financial situations or needs, we will, if required, also give you a Statement of Advice (SoA). This contains the advice we have given, the basis of that advice and other information about our remuneration and any relevant associations or interests which may have influenced the advice provided.

For existing Retail Clients, we may not provide an SOA but rather provide the advice to you orally. In such cases you may request us to provide you with a Record of Advice (via phone or in writing) which we will provide to you within 28 days of such request.

When you ask us to recommend an insurance policy for you, we will usually only consider the policies offered by the insurance providers that we deal with regularly. In giving you advice about the costs and terms of recommended policies we have not compared those policies to other policies available, other than from those insurance providers we deal with regularly. If we recommend the purchase of a particular financial product, we will also give you a Product Disclosure Statement (PDS) at that time, which sets out details specific to that product and the key benefits and risks in purchasing the product.

BLUEWELL'S SOURCES OF INCOME

Outlined below are the types of payments that you may be charged. Before we provide you with any advice, your broker will discuss these options with you. In all cases, details of payments required for the services provided will be given to you at the time of any personal financial advice. These amounts will be documented in your SoA when one is provided.

BROKER FEES

The initial and ongoing advice fees are fees that you and we agree on the onboarding and initial market research on products available, and for the ongoing advice and service that we will provide.

COMMISSIONS

Bluewell may receive initial and ongoing commission payments when you commence an insurance policy recommended by us. Commission payments are based on a percentage of the insurance premiums you pay. They are not paid directly by you and are deducted from the insurance premiums by the product provider and paid to Bluewell. The amount varies between 0% and 30% of the base premium you pay. Where a policy is cancelled before the period of insurance has ended, we will usually retain the commission on any return premium involved.

If you are a Retail Client, commission amounts will be provided in any SOA or on any relevant invoices where an SOA is not provided.

Bluewell retains the interest on premiums paid by you that are held in their trust account before paying the insurer. If you pay by credit card we may charge a credit card fee, which is shown separately on our invoices and is non-refundable. This fee covers the cost of bank charges etc. associated with such facilities.

Premium funding products enable you to pay your invoice by instalments. Premium funders do charge interest. We can arrange premium funding if you require it. We will normally receive a commission of between 1% and 5% of the amount funded from the Premium Funder for arranging the funding. Bluewell may also receive bonuses from Premium Funders in addition to the commission paid on each loan. We will tell you the basis and amount of any and all such payments if you ask us.

HOW WE ARE PAID

All fees, charges or commissions are payable to Bluewell and will be disclosed in advice documents provided to you. Your broker may receive up to 100% of the allocated commission paid to Bluewell or your broker may receive a fixed salary, this will depend on their individual circumstances.

Should you be referred to Bluewell by a third party, the third party may receive a fee or other benefit for the referral. This fee comes out of the fees received by Bluewell and does not represent an additional cost to you. If you are a Retail Client remuneration details will be disclosed in the SOA or invoices related to the advice.
